Terroristic Threat Arrest

On 8/10/2019 at approximately 3:53AM, the Harlingen Police Department received information in reference to a threat that had been posted on a social media site. During the course of this investigation Officers learned that a male subject had used a social media site to post up an imminent threat that was to occur at the Wal-Mart in Harlingen on a specific date. The male subject was located at a residence in Harlingen, and placed under arrest for the Terroristic Threat. He is currently awaiting arraignment at this time in the Harlingen City Jail.

The Harlingen Police Department would like to remind everyone that we will investigate and file the appropriate charges to anyone who makes any threats directed toward our community with the intent to spread panic and fear.
