TELECOMMUNICATOR OF THE YEAR

Every year The Cameron County Emergency Communication District will recognize an individual Telecommunicator for each Emergency Communication Center of Cameron County. A candidate for Telecommunicator of the Year is more than recognition of a single incident; he or she is a continual example of excellence. Evidence of a significant contribution may be, but is not limited to, exemplary performance on a consistent basis, substantial efforts made to better the profession through training or innovation, or continual mentoring and teamwork that betters the organization.

The Harlingen Police Department is proud to recognize Public Safety Communications Officer Jessica Jones as this year's recipient for this award. Congratulations Jessica and thank you for your dedication to the profession!
