Make It to the Table This Thanksgiving
Remember: Buzzed Driving Is Drunk Driving

Harlingen, Texas — This Thanksgiving holiday, the U.S. Department of Transportation's National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) is teaming up with the Harlingen Police Department to make sure you make it to the Thanksgiving table. With the Thanksgiving holiday kicking off a very merry time of year, it's essential to take some time to remember that Buzzed Driving Is Drunk Driving. If your plans to celebrate include alcohol, plan for a sober driver. You may have heard of the popular trend during the Thanksgiving holiday, "Blackout Wednesday," which occurs on the eve of Thanksgiving. Unfortunately, this trend encourages the heavy consumption of alcohol, which is why we're working hard to keep drunk drivers off the roads.

NHTSA and its partners are conducting a social media blitz to remind drivers that Buzzed Driving Is Drunk Driving. NHTSA's goal is to deliver lifesaving messages into the public conversation and to encourage positive actions that can help reduce impaired driving on the roadways. Remember: It is illegal to drive with a BAC of .08 or higher. If you are under the influence of any impairing substance, hand the keys to a sober friend instead of driving yourself home.

Drunk-driving-related crashes spike during the Thanksgiving holiday season. According to NHTSA, from 2015 to 2019, 135 drivers involved in fatal crashes on Thanksgiving Eve were alcohol-impaired, and over the entire holiday period, nearly 800 people died in alcohol-impaired crashes. In fact, during the 2019 Thanksgiving holiday period, more than four times as many drivers involved in fatal crashes were alcohol-impaired during nighttime hours than during the day.

The bottom line is this: If you know you're headed out for a night of drinking, make sure you plan for a sober ride home. It is never safe to get behind the wheel of a vehicle while drunk or otherwise impaired. Remember: *Buzzed Driving Is Drunk Driving

Celebrate with a Plan

If you're planning to head out to the bar or to parties during the Thanksgiving holiday, make sure you plan for a sober ride home. Here are a few tips to help you prepare for a safe night out.

- Remember that it is never okay to drink and drive. Even if you've had only one alcoholic beverage, designate a sober driver or plan to use public transportation or a ride service to get home safely.
- If you see a drunk driver on the road, contact police.
- Do you have a friend who is about to drink and drive? Take the keys away and make arrangements to get your friend home safely.

By working together, we can save lives and help keep America's roadways safe. Please join us in sharing the lifesaving message Buzzed Driving Is Drunk Driving during the holiday weekend.
