

For Immediate Release

May 3, 2022

Media Contact: Irma Garza, City of Harlingen, Public Relations Officer, (956) 216-5030 office or (956) 226-1673 cell

Harlingen to Announce Summer & Fall Event Lineup

Harlingen, Texas—As travel experts across the nation celebrate National Travel and Tourism Week, The City of Harlingen will recognize the importance that travel plays in the local economy, with the announcement of the summer and fall event lineup that includes the return of a major two-day event.

Join the City of Harlingen on May 5, 2022, to learn what musical and family events are planned for the rest of 2022. The announcement will be made during a 10 a.m. press conference at the Harlingen Convention Center

Events in Harlingen attract thousands of people from across Texas that come to enjoy free concerts and family-oriented happenings. Many of the attendees stay in local hotels infusing the local economy. City officials expect even more people to attend this year as the COVID-19 numbers continue to decline and restrictions are being relaxed.

What: Press Conference

When: Thursday, May 5, 2022, at 10 a.m.

Where: Harlingen Convention Center, 701 Harlingen Heights Drive

Why: Summer & Fall Event Lineup

Who: City of Harlingen Officials along with Visit Harlingen Staff

###