Workshop Scheduled to Discuss Emergency & Non-Emergency Services

HARLINGEN, Texas– The Harlingen City Commission is holding a workshop this week to hear firsthand from residents about their ambulance experiences within the City.

The City Commission Workshop is an opportunity for community members to give the Mayor and City Commissioners feedback if they've used emergency and non-emergency ambulance services inside the City limits.

The workshop is scheduled for August 18, 2022, at Harlingen City Hall at 5:30 p.m. and it is open to the public.
