Harlingen, Texas—The City of Harlingen, Cameron County, and the Food Bank RGV have joined forces to distribute food to at least 2,000 families in the community this week. Mayor Chris Boswell says the need continues as people try to make their way back from the economic and health impacts of the COVID-19 Pandemic. “We know many in our community are still without adequate food and The City of Harlingen stands ready to support the Food Bank’s operations as well as others to help with this shortage and crisis.”
