Harlingen Modifies Hours of Operation for Friday, February 19

Harlingen, Texas—Due to continued inclement weather, Harlingen City Offices will not open until 10 a.m. tomorrow, February 19, 2021.

All non-emergency/non-essential employees are asked to report to work at 10 a. m.

The National Weather Service Office in Brownsville predicts freezing temperatures overnight so to ensure employee safety, City operations will be delayed by two hours

Again, the City of Harlingen Offices will open at 10 a.m. on Friday, February 19.

Meantime, the City's Warming Center at the Harlingen Community Center at 201 E. Madison is open tonight for anyone needing a warm place to spend the night or just somewhere to recharge electronic devices.

Those that go must bring bedding, snacks, and any medications they may need. The City will provide cots. The warming center is open 24-hours a day and will remain open through Saturday, Feb 20. Masks are required and temperatures will be taken.

The City will post updates on the City's web and social media sites.
