Polar Express Arriving at Harlingen Library

Harlingen, Texas—Celebrate the holidays with a Polar Express Festival at the Harlingen Public Library. On Wednesday, December 12, from 5:30 –7:30 p.m. the community can enjoy free live music by Frank Rocha, the Vela Middle School Jazz Band, Grupo Folklorica Latinoamericana, and the Harlingen High School Chordettes, a women’s barbershop quartet. Those who attend can also relish in a special reading of the ever popular book “The Night Before Christmas” prior to the arrival of Santa Claus who will make a special appearance to take pictures with the children.

Boys & girls of all ages can take part in games, make crafts, get their faces painted, or even write a letter to Santa. The evening’s festivities will conclude with a Christmas Carol Sing-Along.

It’s free and it’s happening at the Harlingen Public Library which is located at 410 ‘76 Drive.
