Harlingen Public Library Gearing Up for Holidays with Winter Wonderland Festival

HARLINGEN, TEXAS—On December 11, the Harlingen Public Library will be converted into a Winter Wonderland that children of all ages will be sure to enjoy.

As it does every December the Library will host a free holiday themed festival. This year the theme is Winter Wonderland. The festival will feature fun and exciting performances, music, activities, refreshments, and of course books. It's going to be so much fun, that even Santa Claus moved his workshop from the North Pole to the library where children will be able to visit with him. The evening will conclude with a Christmas carol sing-along.

The Winter Wonderland Festival is from 5:30 to 8 p.m. and everyone is invited to stop by and relish in the joy of the holiday spirit.
