STABBING Update

On 4/14/2022, at around 6:45pm Harlingen Officers responded to the 1400 block of South Bus. 77 (McKelvey Park) in reference to a stabbing call. Officers arrived on location and located a female who had multiple stab wounds to her back area. EMS was called immediately for the female victim. As officers investigated the incident, they learned that a physical altercation had occurred between two females, and during the altercation, a juvenile male who was observing the fight used a knife to stab the female. The juvenile male suspect was located and placed into custody charged with Aggravated Assault w/ a deadly weapon. He was later transported to the Juvenile Detention Center.

The female victim is currently in stable condition in an ICU at a local hospital.

The Harlingen Police Department reminds citizens to report any suspicious activity to their local police department.
