

HARLINGEN POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE
2022-0009

HONOR

COURAGE

INTEGRITY

The Harlingen Police Department would like to remind everyone to slow down and drive safely. Due to our recent cold weather, there is the possibility of some ice build-up on our roads and highways, especially on the over passes, and bridges. Always wear your seat belt and pay attention to the weather forecast. Awareness of conditions will help you be more prepared.

Under no circumstances should pets be left outdoors. No matter what the temperature is, windchill can threaten a pet's life. Exposed skin on noses, ears and paw pads are at risk for frostbite and hypothermia during extreme cold snaps.

If you locate a traffic hazard or any unsafe road conditions, you can contact the Harlingen Police Department at 956-216-5940.
