National School Resource Officer Appreciation Day

The National Association of School Resource Officers (NASRO) declared Feb. 15 “National School Resource Officer Appreciation Day” and encourages schools and communities across the nation to recognize the accomplishments of their school resource officers (SROs).

SROs are full-time law enforcement officers with sworn law enforcement authority, trained in school-based policing and crisis response and assigned by an employing law enforcement agency to work with schools using community-oriented policing concepts.

The Harlingen Police Department would like to thank Sergeant Tonya Sandoval, Jesus Banda, Arturo Gonzalez, and JF Garcia for all their hard work and dedication that they do at the Harlingen Schools.
