NAHOMI RODRIGUEZ

Today marks the five-year anniversary of the day Nahomi Rodriguez was reported missing after leaving her place of employment on July 17, 2016 in a small light colored SUV. Throughout the past five years, the Harlingen Police Department has worked diligently with several Local, State and Federal Agencies following up on all leads in this ever-evolving case to provide justice for Nahomi. Her remains were recovered on April 6th, 2017 off Centerline Rd. just outside of Rio Hondo.

We continue to seek assistance from the community for information concerning Nahomi's case. Someone out there has the answers and may be concerned about coming forward. Any information can be provided anonymously by contacting the Harlingen Area Crime Stoppers at (956)425-TIPS (8477). Please help us bring resolution to Nahomi's Family.
