HOMICIDE

At approximately 7:45pm on Wednesday, October 6, 2021, Uniformed Harlingen Police Officers responded to the Sunshine Village Apartments (1600 Sam Houston) in reference to multiple calls of shots fired. Upon arrival Officers located two adult male victims with gunshot wounds. Members of the Harlingen Fire Department and EMS responded to assist. One adult male was pronounced deceased at the scene and the second adult male was transported to a local hospital for treatment. A third adult male victim walked into the hospital minutes later and was treated for an apparent gunshot wound related to this same incident.

Detectives and Crime Scene Technicians responded to process the scene and interview witnesses. The names of the victims are being withheld pending further investigation. At this time Detectives are looking for a male subject as a person of interest in this case. Anyone with information regarding this case is encouraged to call the Harlingen Police at (956)216-5940, Detective Yanez at (956)216-5508 or the Harlingen Area Crime Stoppers. This case is currently under investigation. Additional information will be provided as it becomes available.
